NEWSLETTER 28th AUGUST 2018-08-20

Good morning and welcome to all.

Now that we have settled into our new venue, we trust you will be attending our monthly get-togethers.

How about offering a lift to those members who live in close proximity to yourself. With summer just around the corner, we can come out of “hibernation”.

MEMBERSHIP:

Our thoughts go out to Ursula Schenker and pray her daughter is making good progress. To Ida Cunningham – we are relieved to know you are home again. Many happy returns to those who celebrate a birthday this month and stay young at heart.

If you know of any member who is not well, please let one of our committee members know. Mavis Kessler, who had a leg injury, is doing well and also has a day-carer to see to her.

CLUB NEWSLETTERS:

If you would like to receive a copy of our club newsletter, a donation of R30 to cover future postage will be accepted, or you can supply our membership secretary with a batch of stamped, self-addressed envelopes and we will post the newsletters on to you.

SMILE CORNER:

The rain was pouring and there was a big puddle in front of the pub. A ragged old man was standing there with a rod, hanging a line into the puddle.

A tipsy-looking curious gentleman came over to him and asked what he was doing. 'Fishing.' the old man said, simply.

'Poor old fool,' the gentleman thought and he invited the ragged old man into the pub for a drink.

As he felt he should start some conversation while they were sipping their whiskey, the gentleman asked, 'and how many have you caught?.'

'You're the eighth', the old man answered.

Husband and wife are waiting at the bus stop with their nine children. A blind man joins them after a few minutes. When the bus arrives, they find it overloaded and only the wife and the nine children are able to fit onto the bus. So the husband and the blind man decide to walk. After a while the husband gets irritated by the ticking of the stick of the blind man as he taps it on the sidewalk, and says to him, 'Why don't you put a piece of rubber at the end of your stick? That ticking sound is driving me crazy'.

The blind man replies, 'If you'd put a piece of rubber at the end of YOUR stick, we'd be riding on the busso shut up!'
